

Water experiences for a Spa

BubbleMassage[™] bath experience

K-11343-GCR-0 shown

The client will enjoy sinking into a blissful BubbleMassage bath as a luxurious stand-alone spa experience or as part of a series of treatments, such as before or after a massage. In this bath, BubbleMassage airjets completely envelop the body with a refreshing bubble embrace. Innovative Zones of Control[™] provide targeted massage at the feet, midsection, neck and back or a combination of all three. The technician can select targeted massage of varying degrees – from tranquil bubbles to invigorating massage – for a completely customized experience. Clients can have their mood enhanced with eight-color sequencing or single-color chromatherapy. BubbleMassage baths are available in a variety of sizes and designs.

sōk[®] overflowing bath experience

K-1166-C1-0 shown

Unlike any other bathing product, the sōk overflowing bath is an ideal addition to another spa treatment or as a sensual hydrotherapy experience on its own. The client is submerged in an ultra-deep, soothing soak with an alluring sense of buoyancy and weightlessness. In the warm, slow-moving water, thousands of tiny champagne-like bubbles softly caress the skin. A visual and auditory treat, the water flows over the edge of the infinity pool with a gentle, relaxing sound. Chromatherapy enhances the spirit with an eight-color repeating sequence or a single color that best suits the client's mood. sōk is available in multiple sizes to accommodate treatment rooms for both singles and couples.

RiverBath[®] experience

K-1360-H2-0 shown

Nature meets nurture in this bath experience where clients are transported to an exotic destination. A cascading waterfall washes over the neck and shoulders. Rapids and whitewater experiences are available at the touch of a button from innovative Riverjets[™], while Flexjet whirlpool jets offer traditional whirlpool massage. To further enhance each mood, chromatherapy offers an eight-color repeating sequence or a single color of the bather's preference. RiverBath is available in multiple sizes and shapes to accommodate singles and couples or a variety of floor plans.

Spa/Massage Experience

K-1375-LV/-RV shown

The entire body relaxes in this ultimate hydro-massage bath that targets every muscle. Effervescence surrounds the client with thousands of tiny champagne-like bubbles that cling to and caress the skin for a sensual, comforting experience. Flexjets can be adjusted to target specific areas of the body for a custom massage. Ten backjets are positioned to relieve back and shoulder tension by sequencing up and down the spine to simulate a traditional hands-on massage. The client also receives a stimulating massage at the back of the neck from the pillow's integral neckjets that pulsate side to side. Spa/Massage Experience is offered in a variety of whirlpool sizes and designs including Revival[®], Memoirs[®], Portrait[®] and Tea-for-Two[™].
